Chapter Eight

Accounting

Article 36 The fiscal year of the Bank shall commence from 1 January and end at 31 December of the same year. At the end of each fiscal year, the Bank shall prepare the year-end financial statements. The closing date of each year is 31 December.

Article 37 At the end of each fiscal year, the Bank shall prepare annual report and the Board of Directors shall prepare the following statements and records and submit to the general Shareholders' Meeting for ratification in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the competent authority:

- (1) The business report.
- (2) Financial statements.

(3) Proposals on distribution of profit or loss appropriation.

(4) Other items specified by the competent authority.

The above statements and records, together with the annual report, shall be submitted to the competent authority and the Central Bank within 15 days after the ratification by the ordinary meeting of shareholders. The financial statement and other items specified by the competent authority shall be published in the local daily newspapers or announced according to the mode specified by the competent authority; and shall also be placed at a prominent place of each business office for perusal. Public notice is exempted if Article 36 of the Stock Exchange Act has been complied with.

The publicly announced statements and other items specified by the competent authority referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be duly audited and attested by a certified public accountant.

Article 38 At the end of fiscal year, profit (profit refers to profit before tax and before the deduction of bonuses of employees and remuneration of directors), if any, shall be distributed with 1% to 6% of the profit as employees' bonuses and up to 0.8% distributed as remuneration of directors. However, if the bank has any accumulated losses, profit shall be reserved to cover such amounts first.

The aforementioned bonuses of employees can be in the form of stocks or cash; while remuneration for directors shall be in the form of cash. The aforementioned bonuses and remuneration shall be proposed at the Board of Directors' Meeting attended by at least two-thirds of the directors and approved by at least half the directors present at the meeting, and reported at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 38-1 After the final closing of accounts, surplus, if any, shall be used to make up for the prior year's loss and payment of tax before setting aside 30% of the net profit as statutory reserve in accordance to Banking Act and provision or reverse of special reserves under other relevant law. 30% to 100% of shareholders' dividends and bonuses and other undistributed surplus of previous years can be distributed, to be proposed by the Board of Directors and approved at the Shareholders' Meeting before distribution.

In order to continuously expand the bank's operation and increase its profitability, the Bank adopts the residual dividend approach. According to the Bank's business needs and taking into account future plan for capital budgeting, shareholders' dividend and bonus shall be given primarily in the form of stock dividend in order to reserving an amount for necessary funds and distributing the remainder in the form of cash, provided such cash dividend shall not be less than 10% of the total dividends. No cash dividend will be distributed if the cash dividend falls short of NTD0.1 per share, unless otherwise determined in the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Bank shall not distribute cash profits or buy back shares if any situation stipulated in Article 44-1, subparagraph 1 of the Banking Act occurs.

If the total amount of the legal reserves as stipulated in subparagraph 1 has not reached the total amount of capital, the amount of profit distributed as cash may not exceed 15% of the total capital.

In the event that the legal reserve equals or exceeds the Bank's paid-in capital or the Bank is sound in both its finance and business operations and has set aside legal reserve in compliance with the company Act, the restrictions stipulated in paragraph 1 and paragraph 4 shall not apply.

Chapter 9 Addendum

- Article 39 The Bank shall enter into liability insurance contract with the insurance industry on the liability of indemnity incurred in the course of their duties and according to law by its directors and key officials.
- Article 40 All other matters not specified herein shall be regulated under the Banking Act, the Company Act and other relevant laws or regulations.
- Article 41 These Articles of Incorporation will be implemented after it has been resolved and approved at the meeting of shareholders. The same applies to any amendments to the Articles.
- Article 42 These Articles of Incorporation are concluded on 1 January 1947.
