- (b) the number of Members (not including persons who are in the employment of the Company, and persons who, having been formerly in the employment of the Company, were, while in such employment, and have continued after the determination of such employment to be, Members) shall be limited to fifty. PROVIDED that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly they shall, for the purposes of this Article, be treated as a single Member; and
- (c) the right to transfer the shares of the Company shall be restricted in manner hereinafter prescribed.

SHARES AND CERTIFICATES

- 4. Except as permitted in the Ordinance the Company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase made or to be made by any person of or for any shares in the Company or in its holding company (if any) nor shall the Company make a loan for any purpose whatsoever on the security of its shares or those of its holding company (if any).
- 5. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing shares in the Company, any shares in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred, or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital, or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine.
- 6. Any preference share may, with the sanction of a special resolution, be issued on the terms that it is, or at the option of the Company is liable, to be redeemed.

No financial assistance in connection with shares

| 7.  | Subject to the provisions of Section 57B of the Ordinance, and save as provided by contract or these Articles to the contrary, all unissued shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors who may allot, grant options over, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same to such persons, at such times, for such consideration and generally upon such terms and conditions as they think proper, but so that no shares of any class shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with Section 50 of the Ordinance.   | Allotment of shares                  |
| 8.  | The Directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls.  | Difference in amounts paid on shares |
| 9.  | The Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the Register in respect of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and shall not be under any obligation to recognise any trust or equity or equitable claim to or partial interest in such shares whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.   | Trusts not recognised                |
| 10. | (a) Every Member shall be entitled without any payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of transfer one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of a fee from time to time determined by the Directors but not exceeding five Hong Kong dollars for every certificate after the first. Every certificate shall be under the common seal of the Company and shall specify the shares to which it relates, the distinguishing numbers thereof and the amount paid up thereon. (b) If the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, every share certificate issued by the Company shall contain in a prominent position a statement that its share capital is divided into different classes of shares; and such statement shall specify in respect of the shares of each class the nominal value thereof and the voting rights attached thereto. Where such different classes of shares consist of a class of shares (other than preference or deferred shares so described) the holders of which are not entitled to vote at general meetings of the Company, the descriptive title of the shares of that class shall include the words "non-voting" and those words shall appear legibly on any share certificate or directors' report issued by the Company. | Share certificates                   |
| 11. | Where a Member transfers part of the shares to which any certificate relates he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance thereof without payment.   | Certificate for balance              |
| 12. | If any Member shall require additional certificates he shall pay for each additional certificate such sum, not exceeding two Hong Kong dollars, as the Directors shall determine.   | Additional certificates              |
| 13. | If any certificate be defaced, worn out, lost, or destroyed, a new certificate may be issued on payment of two Hong Kong dollars or such smaller sum as the Directors may prescribe, and the person requiring the new certificate shall surrender the defaced or worn-out certificate, or give such evidence of the loss or destruction of the certificate and such indemnity to the Company as the Directors think fit.  | Renewal of certificates              |

JOINT HOLDERS OF SHARES

|-----|--|---------------|
| 14. | Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any share they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint tenants with benefit of survivorship, subject to the provisions following: | Joint holders |

- |     |  |  |
|-----|--|--|
| (a) | The Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as the holders of any share.  | Maximum number                             |
| (b) | The joint holders of any share shall be liable, severally as well as jointly, in respect of all payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.  | Liability several as well as joint         |
| (c) | On the death of any one of such joint holders the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to such share; but the Directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit.  | Survivors of joint holders only recognised |
| (d) | Any one of such joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividend, bonus, or return of capital payable to such joint holders.   | Receipts                                   |
| (e) | Only the person whose name stands first in the Register as one of the joint holders of any shares shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such share, or to receive notices from the Company, or to attend or vote at general meetings of the Company, and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint holders; but any one of such joint holders may be appointed the proxy of the person entitled to vote on behalf of such joint holders, and as such proxy to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company. | Who entitled to certificate, votes, etc.   |

CALLS ON SHARES

|-----|---|------------------------------------|
| 15. | The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of the share or be made payable within one month after the date when the last instalment of the last preceding call shall have been made payable; and each Member shall, subject to receiving fourteen days' notice at least, specifying the time and place for payment, pay the amount called on his shares to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments. | Calls, how made                    |
| 16. | A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed.   | When call deemed to be made        |
| 17. | If the call payable in respect of any share or any instalment of a call be not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of such share shall be liable to pay interest on the same at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as the Directors shall determine, from the day appointed for the payment of such call or instalment to the time of actual payment; but the Directors may if they shall think fit waive the payment of such interest or any part thereof.  | Interest on calls in arrears       |
| 18. | If by the terms of the issue of any shares, or otherwise, any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at any fixed times, whether on account of the amount of the shares or by way of premium, every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors of which due notice had been given; and all the provisions hereof with respect to the payment of calls and interest thereon, or to the forfeiture of shares for non-payment of calls, shall apply to every such amount or instalment and the shares in respect of which it is payable.           | Instalments to be treated as calls |

19. The Directors may if they think fit receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and upon all or any of the moneys so paid in advance the Directors may (until the same would but for such advance become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of the Company in general meeting, eight per centum per annum) as may be agreed upon between the Member paying the moneys in advance and the Directors.

Payment in advance as call

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

20. The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be in writing, and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and duly attested, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
21. Shares in the Company shall be transferred in any usual or common form of which the directors shall approve.
22. (a) The Directors may in their absolute discretion refuse to register the transfer of any shares. The Directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the fourteen days immediately preceding the annual general meeting in each year.
- (b) The Directors may also decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:
- (i) a fee prescribed by the Company but not exceeding two Hong Kong dollars is paid to the Company in respect thereof;
  - (ii) the instrument of transfer duly stamped is deposited at the registered office of the Company or such other place as the Directors may appoint, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
  - (iii) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares; and
  - (iv) the instrument of transfer is in favour of not more than three joint holders.
- (c) If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares they shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferor and the transferee notice of the refusal.
23. On the death of any Member (not being one of several joint holders of a share) the legal personal representative of such deceased Member shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to such share subject to Articles 22 and 25 hereof.

Notice of refusal to register

Person recognised on death of shareholder

24. Any person becoming entitled to a share or shares by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or shares or have the right to make such transfer of the share or shares as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made, but the Directors shall have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share or shares by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy and this Article is subject to Article 25 hereof.

Transmission
Article

25. The Directors may call on the executors or administrators of a deceased Member at any time after three months from the death of a Member of the Company to transfer the shares of the deceased to some person to be approved by the Directors. If the executors or administrators do not comply forthwith with such call, they shall be deemed to have served the Company with a notice that the executors or administrators are prepared to sell the shares at a price equal to the amount paid up on the shares as the fair value thereof and that the Company shall be thereby constituted their agent for the purpose of sale thereof to such person or persons as the Directors shall think fit (including the Directors themselves or any of them as they may, in their absolute discretion and without being responsible to account, think fit) to offer the same at the price aforesaid. The said notice to transfer shall be deemed to have been given if no person or persons approved by the Directors is put forward by the executors or administrators within twenty-eight days of the Directors' call to such executors and administrators to transfer the shares as aforesaid. Once such notice to transfer shall be deemed to have been given, it shall not be competent for the executors or administrators by any further act to revoke or cancel the same without the consent of the Directors. If the Company, acting through the Directors, shall within the space of twenty-eight days after such notice to transfer is deemed to have been given, find a purchaser or purchasers prepared to purchase the same at the amount paid up on the shares and shall give notice thereof to the executors or administrators, the executors or administrators shall be bound upon payment of the said amount to transfer the shares to the person or persons nominated by the Company through its Directors. In case the executors or administrators having become bound as aforesaid make default in transferring the shares, the Company may receive the said paid-up value of the said shares and the executors and/or administrators shall be deemed to have appointed any one Director or the Secretary of the Company as his or their agent to sign a transfer of the said shares and upon the signature of such transfer the Company shall thereupon cause the name of the purchaser thereof to be entered in the Register as the holder of such shares and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the said executors or administrators. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money for the said shares shall be a good discharge to the purchaser and after the purchaser's name has been entered in the Register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES AND LIEN

26. If any Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring him to pay so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with interest accrued and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment.

Notice
requiring payment of call or instalment

27. The notice shall name a further day (not being earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which such call or instalment and all interest accrued and expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment are to be paid, and it shall also name the place where payment is to be made, such place being either the registered office of the Company, or some other place at which calls of the Company are usually made payable. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which such call or instalment is payable will be liable to forfeiture. What the notice is to state
28. If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect, and any such forfeiture shall extend to all dividends declared in respect of the share so forfeited but not actually paid before such forfeiture. Forfeiture
29. Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner, either subject to or discharged from all calls made or instalments due prior to the forfeiture, as the Directors think fit; or the Directors may, at any time before such shares are sold or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such terms as they may approve. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale or other disposition the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares so sold or otherwise disposed of to the purchaser thereof or other person becoming entitled thereto. Forfeited shares the property of the Company
30. Any person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of the forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, together with interest thereon at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as the Directors shall appoint, down to the date of payment, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receive payment in full in respect of such shares. The Directors may, if they shall think fit, remit the payment of such interest or any part thereof. Liability to pay calls after forfeiture
31. When any shares have been forfeited an entry shall forthwith be made in the Register recording the forfeiture and the date thereof, and so soon as the shares so forfeited have been sold or otherwise disposed of an entry shall also be made of the manner and date of the sale or disposal thereof. Entry of particulars
32. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all shares held by any Member of the Company (whether alone or jointly with other persons) and upon all dividends and bonuses which may be declared in respect of such shares, for all debts, obligations and liabilities of such Member to the Company: provided that if the Company shall register a transfer of any shares upon which it has such a lien as aforesaid without giving to the transferee notice of its claim, the said shares shall, in default of agreement to the contrary between the Company and the transferee, be free and discharged from the lien of the Company. Lien

| 33. | The Directors may, at any time after the date for the payment or satisfaction of such debts, obligations or liabilities shall have arrived, serve upon any Member who is indebted or under any obligation to the Company, or upon the person entitled to his shares by reason of the death or bankruptcy of such Member, a notice requiring him to pay the amount due to the Company or satisfy the said obligation and stating that if payment is not made or the said obligation is not satisfied within a time (not being less than fourteen days) specified in such notice, the shares held by such Member will be liable to be sold; and if such Member or the person entitled to his shares as aforesaid shall not comply with such notice, within the time aforesaid, the Directors may sell such shares without further notice, and for the purpose of giving effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. | Sale for lien                             |
| 34. | Upon any sale being made by the Directors of any shares to satisfy the lien of the Company thereon the proceeds shall be applied: first, in the payment of all costs of such sale; next, in satisfaction of the debts or obligations of the Member to the Company; and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale or as he shall in writing direct.  | Proceeds, how applied                     |
| 35. | An entry in the Directors' minute book of the forfeiture of any shares, or that any shares have been sold to satisfy a lien of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence as against all persons claiming to be entitled to such shares that the said shares were properly forfeited or sold; and such entry, the receipt of the Company for the price of such shares, and the appropriate share certificate, shall constitute a good title to such shares and the name of the purchaser or other person entitled shall be entered in the Register as a Member of the Company, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money, nor shall his title to the said shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or sale. The remedy (if any) of the former holder of such shares, and of any person claiming under or through him, shall be against the Company and in damages only.                        | What necessary to give title to purchaser |

STOCK

|-----|--|--|
| 36. | The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution convert any fully paid-up shares into stock and may reconvert any stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination. After the passing of any resolution converting all the fully paid-up shares of any class in the capital of the Company into stock, any shares of that class which subsequently become fully paid-up and rank pari passu in all other respects with such shares shall, by virtue of this Article and such resolution, be converted into stock transferable in the same units as the shares already converted. | Conversion of shares into stock and reconversion |
| 37. | The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as the shares from which the stock arose might prior to conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit. The Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of such minimum, but the minimum shall not, without the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company, exceed the nominal amount of each of the shares from which the stock arose.           | Transfer of stock                                |
| 38. | The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights as regards dividends, voting at general meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such right (except as to participation in dividends and profits of the Company and in assets on a reduction of capital or a winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such rights.   | Rights of stockholders                           |

39. Such of these Articles as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply mutatis mutandis to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder". Share provisions to apply

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

40. The Company may by ordinary resolution increase its capital by the creation of new shares, such increase to be of such aggregate amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts as the resolution shall prescribe. Capital, how increased
41. Subject to the provisions of Article 47 hereof, the new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights, priorities, or privileges as the resolution effecting the increase of capital shall prescribe. Terms of issue of new shares
42. Subject to the other provisions of these Articles the shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors, who may allot or otherwise dispose of them to such persons (including any Directors) at such times and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Directors may determine. Offers of shares
43. Any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall, unless otherwise provided by the condition of issue, be considered as part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls and the forfeiture of shares on non-payment of calls, transfer and transmission of shares, lien or otherwise, as if it had been part of the original capital. New capital to be considered part of original unless otherwise provided
44. The Company may by ordinary resolution: Alteration of capital
- (a) subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, subdivide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association: provided that in the subdivision of an existing share the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
  - (b) consolidate and divide its capital or any part thereof into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;
  - (c) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
45. The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner allowed by law. Reduction of capital
46. Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, the Company may purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares) and, make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own shares otherwise than out of distributable profits of the Company or the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares. Purchase of the Company's own shares

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

47. If at any time the capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class may, subject to the provisions of the Ordinance, be modified, abrogated, or varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply but so that at every such separate general meeting the quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class, and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll and that at any meeting of such holders adjourned through want of a quorum one holder present in person or by proxy (whatever the number of shares held by him) shall be a quorum.
- Rights of various classes may be altered

BORROWING POWERS

48. The Directors may raise or borrow for the purposes of the Company's business such sum or sums of money as they think fit. The Directors may secure the repayment of or raise any such sum or sums as aforesaid by mortgage or charge upon the whole or any part of the property and assets of the Company, present and future, including its uncalled or unissued capital, or by the issue, at such price as they may think fit, of bonds or debentures, either charged upon the whole or any part of the property and assets of the Company or not so charged, or in such other way as the Directors may think expedient.
- Borrowing powers of Directors
49. Any bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other securities issued or to be issued by the Company shall be under the control of the Directors, who may issue them upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and for such consideration as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the Company.
- Bonds, debentures, etc., to be subject to control of Directors
50. The Company may, upon the issue of any bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities, confer on the creditors of the Company holding the same, or on any trustees or other persons acting on their behalf, a voice in the management of the Company, whether by giving to them the right of attending and voting at general meetings, or by empowering them to appoint one or more persons to be the Directors of the Company, or otherwise as may be agreed.
- May confer voice in management of the Company
51. If any Director or other person shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Directors may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge, or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the Director or person so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.
- Indemnity may be given
52. A register of the holders of the debentures of the Company shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, and shall be open to the inspection of the registered holders of such debentures and of any Members of the Company, subject to such restrictions as the Company in general meeting may from time to time impose. The Directors may close such register for such period or periods as they may think fit, not exceeding in the aggregate thirty days in each year.
- Register of debenture holders

GENERAL MEETINGS

53. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance with regard to written resolutions, the Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint and need not be held in Hong Kong.
- (b) All other general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
54. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and shall, on requisition in accordance with the Ordinance, proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting.
55. In the case of an extraordinary general meeting called in pursuance of a requisition, unless such meeting shall have been called by the Directors, no business other than that stated in the requisition as the objects of the meeting shall be transacted.
56. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 21 days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the Company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by 14 days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under these Articles entitled to receive such notices from the Company:
- PROVIDED that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:
- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.
57. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting or (in cases where an instrument of proxy is sent out with the notice) the accidental omission to send such instrument of proxy to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting or such instrument of proxy by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
58. In every notice calling a meeting of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not also be a Member.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

59. The business of any annual general meeting shall be to receive and consider the accounts and balance sheets, the reports of the Directors and Auditors, and any other documents required by law to be attached or annexed to the balance sheets, to elect Directors and Auditors in place of those retiring and fix their remuneration, and to declare a dividend. All other business transacted at an annual general meeting, and all business transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, shall be deemed special. Business of meeting
60. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; and such quorum shall consist of not less than two Members personally present or by proxy. PROVIDED that where from time to time the Company has only one Member, the quorum shall consist of one Member personally present or by proxy. Quorum
61. If within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum be not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the Members present shall form a quorum. Adjournment for want of quorum
62. The chairman of the Board shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If there be no such chairman, or if at any meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as chairman, the Members present shall choose one of the Directors present to be Chairman; or if no Director be present and willing to take the chair the Members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman. Chairman
63. The chairman may, with the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted thereat. Adjournment with consent of meeting
64. (a) At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll, a poll is demanded by: Voting
- (i) the chairman of the meeting; or
  - (ii) at least two Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote; or
  - (iii) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing in aggregate not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all Members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting; or

(iv) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and holding shares conferring a right to attend and vote at the meeting on which there have been paid up sums in the aggregate equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all shares conferring that right.

(b) Unless a poll is so demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried unanimously or by a particular majority or not carried by a particular majority or lost shall be final and conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded for or against such resolution.

65. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn only with the approval of the meeting. If a poll be directed or demanded in the manner above mentioned it shall (subject to the provisions of Article 67 hereof) be taken at such time (being not later than seven days after the date of the demand) and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting may appoint. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. The result of such poll shall be deemed for all purposes to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was so directed or demanded. Poll

66. In the case of an equality of votes at any general meeting, whether upon a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. Casting vote

67. A poll demanded upon the election of a chairman or upon a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Any business, other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

68. If: Votes counted: objections and errors

- (i) any objection is raised to the qualification of any voter; or
- (ii) any votes are counted which ought not to have been counted or which might have been rejected; or
- (iii) any votes are not counted which ought to have been counted; the objection or error shall not vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution unless the same is raised or pointed out at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same may have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.
